

A small but highly motivated team, working closely together is the basis to develop outstanding solutions for our customers. If you are willing to bring in all your expertise, skills and creativity and expect the same from your colleagues then you are at the right place to work. State of the art tools and latest communication equipment as well as a comfortable working environment are obvious. Last but not least flexible work time models offer you the right work life balance. Located in the Tyrolean Alps we work where others go for vacation.

We are a well growing SME, developing and manufacturing high tech equipment for the electrical power industry. As we are expanding we are looking for an

GLOBAL SALES ENGINEER (F/M)

MAJOR RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Key account management and acquisition of new customers
- Complete commercial order handling
- Taking care of our customers at our works or at site

WE EXPECT:

- Communication skills and a convincing personality
- Proactively seeking out new sales opportunities
- Willing to travel, team player and stressable

YOUR EXPERIENCE:

- University degree in electrical engineering or similar
- 5 years sales experiences with traceable results in CAPEX
- Self organized and flexible working style
- Excellent English in writing and spoken is a must, additionally French and Spanish language is welcome

WE OFFER:

- A highly interesting position, where you can realize your ideas and see your success
- Working in an international company being worldwide active
- Very good possibilities for your advancement
- Working in an environment where others go for holidays

For this position we offer a gross salary of EUR 50.000. Depending on your qualification and experience a competitive and performance-related package will be paid.

We look forward to receiving your application at personal@mohaupt-hv.com.